To mark 100 years since the end of World War One on 11 November this year we would appreciate anyone who can knit or crochet to make some poppies for a display which is being constructed. They must have a black centre and red to represent petals – see Anne Learmonth or Avril Cockburn to find out the approximate size we are looking for. All completed poppies should be given to Avril or Anne by Sunday 4 November.

Harvest - Many thanks to everyone who contributed to our Harvest Celebration last Sunday, whether by donating flowers, organising them or making the deliveries. 49 very generous bunches of flowers were given to those who are unwell within the congregation.

Many thanks, also to everyone who donated to 'Mercy Ships'. The excellent response realised the sum of £1,070.00.

The Royal Voluntary Service (RVS) is looking for more volunteers for the Teabar every fourth Thursday evening from 6 p.m. till 8 p.m..

Apart from our church's four weekly Thursday rota, the Teabar is in need of more volunteers on any day for various shifts - morning, afternoon and evening, so if you would like to volunteer and can't go on Thursday evenings, you would be very welcome on other days.

For further information, please contact Liz Riddell.

After a visit to Cameo on Tuesday, 2 October, by Glasgow Street Pastors, we became aware of the need for items which the Street Pastors distribute whilst doing their work on Friday and Saturday nights. We are collecting warm Hats, Gloves and Scarves which we will give to Stuart on his return visit on 27 November. They also hand out Mars Bars. If anyone wishes to donate Mars Bars too, they would be extremely grateful.

There will be a collection box for any donations at the front door for the next few Sundays. Thanking you all in anticipation.

CHRISTIAN AID PAPER QUIZ 2018 - AIRDRIE VERSION!

As it is too late to use the official C. A. website quiz, a special Airdrie style quiz has been produced by David Kennedy of High Church. These quiz sheets with some very challenging questions (I suspect Google will be doing overtime) are available, for £1 donation, from Liz Riddell.
